

Princes Plain Primary School

Bromley, BR2

Value: £195k
Client: London Borough of Bromley
Programme: 13 weeks
Contract: JCT Intermediate 2011 with Contractors Design

Description: Extension, Refurbishment and Alteration

Extension, alteration and refurbishment of part of the existing Block C building to provide new reception classroom, internal alterations and refurbishment of WC area in the Blume building, and installation of new play equipment and surfacing.

Following completion, the school was re-named Trinity CofE Primary School.

"I am writing to let you know that the recent project carried out at Princes Plain Primary was managed very successfully by your site manager. He was professional and helpful at all times and we had every confidence in his safe management of the site".

Claire Jones, School Business Manager, Princes Plain Primary School

